Dear Mr. Jones:

I have been asked to reply to your letter to Mr. Helms of 7 December 1971 concerning a new television series in the law enforcement field.

The National Security Act of 1947, which established the Central Intelligence Agency, states, "The Agency shall have no police, subpoena, law-enforcement powers, or internal-security functions." Consequently, we of course do not engage in any activities of this nature.

I am enclosing for your information a booklet containing additional data concerning the Central Intelligence Agency.

Sincerely,

Howard J. Casper
Director of Security
